THE FLAG AT MANILA.

Some incidents of the American Occupation of Historic Interest.

From the Bounding Billow, published on the U. S. S. Olympia, the following items are made up:

Just as six bells — 11 o'clock — struck on August 13, the Stars and Stripes were hoisted over Malate fort by a soldier of the First Colorado, but who said to say was shot by a Spanish sharpshooter.

At 5:40 the same day the Spanish flag was lowered and "Old Glory" hung to the breeze over the walls of Manila. The flag was hoisted by Apprentice Edward P. Stanton of Louisville, Ky., and Samuel Ferguson of Syracuse, N. Y., under the direction of Flag Lieutenant Brumby, all of the Olympia. One Army officer was present. As the Spanish flag was lowered in the dust the Spanish Governor General's family and the Spaniards assembled wept, but as the dear old Stars and Stripes went up they began to hiss.

As an offset to this painful scene a beautiful incident took place. Just as our colors reached the truck of the flagstaff, a regimental band entered the walled city and, though they could not be seen by the spectators, they caught sight of "Old Glory" waving proudly over their heads and struck up that time so dear to the patriot heart, the "Star Spangled Banner," while cheer on cheer burst from the soldiers as they swung by.

On board ship every eye was on the Spanish flag anxiously awaiting its lowering. Suddenly a wild yell is heard, "There she goes," and amid the frenzied cheering of the tired but happy men-o-war's men our vessels roared forth a National salute to the dear banner flying so bravely over our new territory.

The flag hoisted by the Yankees in Manila was extra large. It was over 36 feet long, 19 feet 6 inches wide, each separate stripe being 18 inches in breadth.

The Star Spangled Banner flown at the Olympia's fore, when the flagstaff put in for the last round on August 23, was presented to Admiral Dewey and the Olympia by the children of the Byrant school, Plainsfield, New Jersey.

Kawaihae Notes.

Eleven children and three adults were baptized in Kawaihae church Sunday morning.

In the evening Kanuha spoke on the subject of the good and the evil and how to avoid the latter. Kamehameha girls and boys both were present. The latter sang.

This being the week of prayer there will be meetings in Kawaihae Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

A Friend's Suggestion.

"I have long been troubled with eczema. I was almost ready to give up in despair when a friend suggested Hood's Sarsaparilla. I gladly thank my friend for his suggestion, for I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and today I am in better health than for years." S. A. Collin, Dover, Arkansas.

Public Invited.

The commander of the Etna has decided to throw open his ship to the public between the hours of 2 and 6 this and Wednesday afternoon. This will be a great opportunity for the Honolulu people.

O. W. O. Hardman, when sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., was at one time, almost prostrated with a cold. He used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was so much pleased with the quick relief and cure it afforded him, that he gave the following unsolicited testimonial: "To all who may be interested, I wish to say, that I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and find it invaluable for coughs and colds." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co.
